

Privacy Collection Notice - Families

1. The College collects personal information, including sensitive information about a student and parents before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the College. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College to provide schooling to a student enrolled at the College, exercise its duty of care, and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable a student to take part in all the activities of the College.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the College's legal obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a College require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts, and Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health information about a student is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. We may ask you to provide medical reports about a student from time to time.
5. The College may disclose personal and sensitive information for educational, administrative and support purposes. This may include disclosing such information:
  - other schools and teachers at those schools;
  - government departments (including for policy and funding purposes);
  - Catholic Education Office, the College's local diocese and the parish, the Catholic Education Commission, Anglican Education Commission and other related church agencies/entities,
  - medical practitioners;
  - people providing educational, support and health services to the College, including specialist visiting teachers, sports coaches, volunteers, and counsellors;
  - providers of learning and assessment tools;
  - assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN);
  - people providing administrative and financial services to the College;
  - anyone you authorise the College to disclose information to; and
  - anyone to whom the College is required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.
6. The College may disclose personal information (your name and address) to another school who may wish to provide you with information to assist you in choosing another school.
7. Personal information collected from a student is regularly disclosed to their parents.
8. The College may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal and sensitive information and to provide services to the College that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services.

This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's servers which may be situated outside Australia. Further information about the College's use of on online or 'cloud' service providers is contained in the College's Privacy Statement.

9. The College's Privacy Statement, accessible on the College's website, sets out how parents or a student may seek access to and correction of their personal information which the College has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to the student, or where a student have provided information in confidence. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.
10. The College's Privacy Statement also sets out how parents and students can make a complaint about a breach of the APPs and how the complaint will be handled.
11. The College will engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the College's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
12. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in College newsletters and magazines, on our intranet and on our website this may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, College camps and College excursions. The College will obtain permissions from the student's parent (and from the student if appropriate) if we would like to include such photographs or videos or other identifying material in our promotional material or otherwise make this material available to the public such as on the internet.
13. We may include student' and student' parents' contact details in a class list and College directory.
14. If you provide the College with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the College and why.
